50X1-HUM

The Chinese Communists are afraid that the United States might not extend the peace talks and might instead take military action in Korea or extend the war to the mainland. Therefore, YUAN I-lieh (表 意 然 50X1-HUM Chinese Communist East China Area naval commander, received the following order from JAO Shu-shih, chairman and political commissar of the East China Military Area:

- a. Naval coastal defense forces in Fukien, Chekiang, Kiangsu, and Shantung are to be alerted at once. If American ships or aircraft enter the Chinese Communist defense line, the Chinese Communists are to open fire immediately.
- b. Chinese Communist naval craft, including heavy combat ships, are to stay in port or near their bay areas to prevent an attack by American
- c. Leaves of men and officers of the 3 Marine Division and men stationed at Tsingtao, Yent'ai, Shenghai, Amoy and other ports are to be cancelled immediately.
- d. Observation points are to be established along the Shangtung, Kiangsu, and Chekiang coastal islands. Units are to be organized to observe American ship and aircraft activities. An elem is to be sent out if either is sighted.
